

History: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Fluid loss <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Vomiting Diarrhea Fever * Blood loss * Infection 	Signs and Symptoms: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Restlessness, confusion, weakness * Dizziness * Increased HR, rapid pulse * Decreased BP * Pale, cool, clammy skin * Delayed capillary refill 	Differential: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Trauma * Infection * Dehydration <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Vomiting Diarrhea Fever * Congenital heart disease * Medication or Toxin
---	--	--

Pearls:

- * Exam: Mental Status, Skin, HEENT, Heart, Lungs, Abdomen, Extremities, Back, Neuro
- * Consider all possible causes of shock and treat per appropriate protocol.
- * Decreasing heart rate is a sign of impending collapse.
- * Most maternal medications pass through breast milk to the infant. Examples: Narcotics, Benzodiazepines,